Vision: The Satilla River Water Trail Partnership will be instrumental in coordinating and implementing activities and initiatives to ensure the Satilla River is a main component of a statewide network of water trails designed to promote recreation and outdoor activities for paddlers and river enthusiasts while providing sustainable economic growth in the region.

Mission: The mission of the Satilla River Water Trail Partnership is to encourage residents and visitors to celebrate the historic, scenic and environmental richness of the Satilla River.

HOW CAN I SUPPORT THE SATILLA RIVER WATER TRAIL?

Local governments, non-profit organizations, businesses and individuals can build and promote the Satilla River Water Trail (SRWT) by making a tax-deductible donation through the Satilla River Water Trail Partnership/Satilla Riverkeeper. All funds earmarked for the water trail will be used to:

- Develop and maintain the SRWT website
- Promote the SRWT through print and digital media
- Create and erect signage on roadways directing users to river access locations
- Create and install maps and other useful information in kiosks at river access points
- Coordinate the efforts of local governments to create uniform signage and information along the length of the water trail
- Construct new public access points

WHAT ARE THE PARTNER BENEFITS?

Local governments, non-profit organizations, businesses and individuals who financially support the Satilla River Water Trail will:

- Be eligible to participate in all SRWT stakeholders meetings
- Be recognized on SRWT website
- Be recognized at SRWT events
- Receive updates on SRWT news and events
- Receive invitations to all SRWT events
- Provide recreation and economic development in your community
